

A Four Year Old

I'm only a little girl, you say.
I'm only four years old today.
But if I am small, I'll let you know
That I am "mighty," my dad said so!

He said I was like the four-leaf clover
I found when at play in the yard with Rover,
I bring good luck to all who are near,
And when I'm good, I'm a "regular dear."

My dad said that good luck was ever found
Whene'er there's a good little girl around.
And so you see if I am so small,
I'll bring the best of good luck to you all.

It is nice to find a four-leaf clover,
And I think I'll hunt again with Rover,
And then the clover will bring to me,
More good luck to give to you, see?
