

Bartimaeus, A Story Of Hope

By Mary Engquist

This is a short and to the point skit that children will learn to call on Jesus for mercy and celebrate the good things God does for them and others. They will learn how to praise Him when He is at work in their lives.

The scene starts out with music or someone singing just a few lines of “Lord Have Mercy On Me” 0. 44 secs.

You can find these songs on You Tube.

Woody is being carried out on stage. Two people are holding him out. One holds his legs the other holds his head. Woody has a blindfold on his eyes, he cannot see.

He sits up and says.

Woody----Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving kindness.

Charlie---Believe, Woody, believe that Jesus will heal you.

Song plays “I believe” 0.-55secs

Woody---I do, I do, why, I believe.

Now Woody-Removes his blindfold

Song plays---“I Can See, I can see.” 0-103 secs.

Charlie---What a great job you did!

Woody---Yea, I think so, maybe we are good enough to act out Bartimaeus in our Good News Club now.

Charlie---Dream on, little man.

Woody---I sure have learned a great deal.

Charlie—And what is that?

Woody—Well, that we should always celebrate and praise God for his goodness and Mercies.

Charlie—Yea, I agree, and we need to always celebrate the Good things that God does for us.

Woody—Yea, and let’s not forget to Praise God.

Charlie---Always and forever.

Song plays---“God Is So Good.” Full song
