

Creation - Days 4 - 7

Lesson #2

A puppet skit.

Song playing—Creation Days 4 - .46 sec to end.

Woody: Yippee cooties; I mean Yippee coyote!

Charlie: Why, are you saying I have cooties? Shame on you, Woody.

Woody: No, silly. It's yippee coyote because we are on the 4th day of creation.

Charlie: I know that!

Woody: Know what?

Charlie: Do I have to explain everything to you?

Woody: Yes, and while you're at it, what was the 4th day of creation?

Charlie: Oh, that is easy. It was the day that the moon was made for night and the sun was made for light.

Woody: That is almost a tongue twister.

Charlie: Just like day 5, God filled the skies with birds, bees, and flies.

Woody: Did you have to mention flies?

Charlie: Ok, maybe not, but he also filled the sea with fish.

Woody: God is so good in giving us food to eat.

Charlie: And showing us his goodness in all things.

Woody: God even shows his goodness in giving me you, Charlie

Charlie: Hold it, Woody! Did I say I wanted you?

Woody: Do You?

Charlie: We are getting off the subject, Woody. Now day 6.

Woody: Yes, on day 6 God created all living things, including me and you!

Song plays—God Made Me

Charlie: Hey, I like that. What about day 7?

Woody: That's the day that God rested and said “this is good.”

Charlie: I love all the 7 days of creation so much I want to hear it again. Please, please!

Woody: Anything for you, Charlie.

Song plays –The creation song. (This goes through all the 7 days of creation.)

After song Woody and Charlie rest and fall asleep.
