

NOAH

By Mary Engquist

A puppet skit

Scene one: Charlie and Woody are wearing raincoats and music in the background of rain and thunder.

Woody-----Rain! Rain! Rain! It has rained for three whole days! Will it ever stop raining?

Charlie----I know you are disappointed because you haven't been able to play outside, but it has only been three days and today is the first day we have been able to get outside and this is just a light drizzle you're feeling now.

Can you imagine what it must have been like to watch it rain for FORTY days?

Woody---FORTY days? Are you NUTS?

Charlie---I am only telling you what the Bible says about Noah and the ark.

Woody---Oh, yea! I heard something about that in Sunday school last week.

Charlie---You mean to tell me that you listen to our Sunday School teacher for once in your life?

Woody---I always listen to her. Well most always, that is.

Charlie---Well, if you listened so well, what was the WORD UP scripture for last week?

Woody---Aha! Aha! No, don't tell me! I remember. Now let me think!

Charlie---I'm waiting! Hurry up, little buddy, before we get so soaked from all this rain we will float away into the wild blue yonder.

Woody---Hey, quit getting so excited now. Besides I think I got it! (The Holy Spirit is our helper!)

Charlie---Well, ok that was good. Now remember the song we sang?

Woody---Yea, and I loved the part about the, well, let's just sing it.

Song plays Mr. Noah had an ark. (0-.57 secs.)

Woody---I still don't quite get it, Charlie!

Charlie---What don't you get?

Woody----I just don't understand why everyone did not believe Noah.

Charlie---Oh! That is simple. Noah always obeyed and trusted God even if other people thought he was silly. He knew he should always follow God no matter what anyone thinks.

Woody----I get it now! We need to stand firm and obey God even if people make fun of us.

Charlie---That's it Woody, Trust and Obey.

Woody---You got that right. For the Holy Spirit is our helper if we are believers.

Charlie---Yes, that's it. Let's pray to God.

Woody---Okay, I will start.

Dear God, Thank you for loving us.

Charlie---And caring for us.

Woody---Help us to obey you.

Charlie---Even when our friends want us to do wrong.

Woody---And thank you for your promise of protection.

Woody & Charlie---In Jesus's name, Amen!.

Song plays—Arky, Arky Noah.
