

When I'm Afraid
By Mary Engquist

A three star puppet show
Charlie is up in front of the room with Rocky.

Song plays---The Dragnet theme plays while Woody is walking up front. Woody is wearing a pair of sunglasses.

Rocky—What is going on, Charlie? I'm scared!

Charlie---Don't be scared!

Charlie---Enough of this, Woody, why you are scaring Rocky?

Rocky---Yea, why are you scaring me? And me of all people.

Woody---Because you're the only people I know that will put up with me.

Charlie---You mean I am the only one that will put up with you.

Rocky---Well, just so you two will know, I have been having bad, bad dreams at night. And I am very, very scared.

Charlie—You know, Rocky, that when we are really, really scared we can pray to God too.

Woody---Yea, she is very right about that and when we love Jesus, well, just listen.

Song plays We love Jesus. Woody and Charlie are marching with Rocky.

Rocky---Okay, I love Jesus too.

Charlie---Did you know, boys, that we should praise Jesus on...

Rocky---Just on Sundays?

Charlie—Oh, no, Rocky, not just Sundays.

Woody—Yea, only on Sunday, Wednesday and Friday.

Charlie—Now, don't tell Rocky that.

Woody---Yea, Rocky, don't listen to me.

Rocky---Then who do I listen too? Why are you confusing me?

Charlie---It's not confusing. All we need to do is praise God every day.

Rocky---Even if that means seven days a week?

Charlie---You got it now, buddy, because we have a friend.

Woody—Yea, we do and guess who our friend is?

Rocky---I know, I know, I know. What a friend we have in Jesus.

Songs plays---- What a friend we have in Jesus, all puppets sing.

The End
